IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Sites

Beginning Jan 16, call 417-546-4431 to make an appointment for free tax preparation.

Who can get Free Tax Preparation and the Earned Income Credit?

- Taxpayers with an AGI of $57,000 or less can get Free Tax Preparation
- Families meeting additional requirements are eligible for a credit of up to $6,318

Volunteers are not trained to do business taxes, the long forms or capital gains and losses. If you have any of these you should see a paid preparer.

Want your taxes prepared for FREE? Be sure to bring:

- Social Security cards for you, your spouse, and each of your dependent children
- Form W-2 for every job you or your spouse worked in 2017
- A personal check (for your checking account and routing number), if you want your refund directly deposited
- If you have a Marketplace granted health coverage exemption, bring your exemption certificate number, if you got insurance through the Marketplace, bring form 1095A
- Your 2016 tax return (optional)

In 2017, did you...

- Receive unemployment compensation? Bring your Form 1099G
- Pay for child care? Bring the total you paid for child care expenses and the name, address, and Tax ID/Social Security Number of the child care provider
- Pay student loan interest? Bring the total of the student loan interest you paid
- Pay for tuition? Bring Form 1098 for you, your spouse, and/or dependent children
